Good Evening Everyone,

Tomorrows Service will be broadcast via the Ballymacelligott Community Alert Facebook page sometime between 11 and 11.15am, Just go to this page and wait for the red live icon to appear and select.

If you are unable to tune it at that time , you will find it on the their facebook and on our facebook page later in the day.

Similarly if you want to watch any of our previous services they are still available at the 'Services online' section of our parish website traleedingle.ardfert.anglican.org

Tomorrow is mid summers day and what a lovely spell of weather we had right through April and May, this recent dampish spell of 'Soft refreshing rain' (What hymn is that line from ?) has been very welcome, as it has brought much needed water which is so essential for life and growth.

Hopefully bright summer days will return soon.

We have been busy thinking though how Church will return on the 5th and 12th July and there is quite a lot of material to be read and procedures to be put in place

I am thinking that we will open slowly wth Tralee, Camp and Dingle on the 5th and then all Churches will open on the 12th.

It's important for health and safety that we get this right.

A small team have met in both Tralee and Camp to prepare the church and to ensure that all the recommended procedure will be in place, such as notices, Sanitizers and to see how we will organise seating and all the other things that we never even thought of before.

Select vestries will have to meet to ensure that everything will be in place as per recommendations and that responsibility extends to the Soup Kitchen and to all those who use Teach an tSolais and to any of our buildings which are used by others.
